“Do as I do”

October 12, 2025 — The 18th Sunday after Pentecost

John 13:12-17 (NRSVue)

¹² After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had reclined again, he said to them, “Do you know what I have done to you? ¹³ You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for that is what I am. ¹⁴ So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet. ¹⁵ For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. ¹⁶ Very truly, I tell you, slaves are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them. ¹⁷ If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.

When you read the story of Jesus washing his disciples’ feet, how does it make you feel?

If Jesus was to wash your feet (and he does...) what might you experience?

How do Jesus’ actions define how we are to live in community with one another?

Why is it important to understand that we must first have our feet washed by Jesus, before we can wash other’s feet?

Call to Worship
Friends, do you know why we've gathered today?		Claire Love
We've come to remember Jesus and follow His way.
Do you see what He has done for us?
He served with love, and calls us to do the same.
Then let us step into His presence with thankful hearts.
We are here to worship and to learn from our Teacher and Lord.
* Hymn # 581	Lord, Whose Love Through Humble Service	BEACH SPRING
* Prayer of Confession
Jesus, You are our Teacher and Lord.
You have shown us what love looks like,
yet we confess that we often turn away.
We choose comfort instead of service,
pride instead of humility,
our own way instead of Yours.
Forgive us, Lord.
Wash us clean, and renew our hearts,
so that we may follow Your example
and live in the joy of Your love.
Amen.
* Words of Assurance		Rev. David Beam
* Gloria Patri # 71	Glory Be to the Father	GREATOREX
Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
* Sharing the Peace of Christ
Children (3 years old-5th grades) may leave to participate in TaborKids today. Parents will pick them up in the Children's

Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
